

List of Resources for Parents and Caregivers

Government Resources:

Manitoba ParentZone is a comprehensive website that provides parents with resources and information that reflects best practices in health and child and adolescent development. Parents can access helpful tip sheets, ask question using the “Ask an Expert” feature and learn more about parenting programs and resources available to them. Visit: www.manitobaparentzone.ca

Online Resources for Manitoba Educators offers a wide variety of free learning resources for parents including videos, audiobooks, books, as well as an alternate formats collection for children with disabilities: <https://mbcsc.edu.gov.mb.ca/cgi-bin/koha/pages.pl?p=fore>

For educators and parents who are seeking learning materials in French, please contact the Direction des ressources éducatives françaises (DREF) at: dref@gov.mb.ca or call 204-945-8594 or toll-free 1-800-667-2950. Visit: <https://dref.mb.ca/>

Webinar for Kids Who have Questions about COVID-19, a special event hosted by Ace Burpee (103.1 radio host), where children asked questions and received answers from Manitoba health care practitioners.
Visit: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oj2HyrGvsJQ>

Activities for Young Children (Preschool to Age 6):

BrainPOPjr is a website for young learners to complete activities, games, and ask questions and explore their world. Subjects cover STEM, social studies, reading/writing, health, and arts. Visit: <https://jr.brainpop.com>

Cbeebies (part of the British Broadcast Corporation) is an online site that provides young children with shoes, games, match and sing, and other learning activities
<https://global.cbeebies.com/>

Oxford Owl for Home (part of Oxford University Press) is an online site with free educational activities and games, advice and support for parents, and a free book library for 3 – to 11 year olds. Visit <https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/>.

PBS Kids, a website where young children can play with their favourite show characters and learn too. Visit: <https://pbskids.org/>

San Diego Zoo has a website for children with videos, activities and games. Visit: <https://kids.sandiegozoo.org/>

Seussville is a website where children can read, play games, and hang out with Dr. Seuss. Visit: <https://www.seussville.com/>

Activities for School-Age Children and Youth:

Blockly Games is a series of educational games that teach programming. It is a Code with Google program designed for children who have not had prior experience with computer programming. Visit: <https://blockly.games/>

ClickSchooling brings you daily recommendations by email for entertaining websites that help your kids learn. This site is regularly used by homeschooling families. Visit: <https://clickschooling.com/>

Scratch is an online tool for children to create, learn to think creatively, work collaboratively, program and share interactive media such as stories, games, and animation with people from all over the world. It is designed and maintained by the Lifelong Kindergarten group and the MIT Media Lab. Visit: <https://scratch.mit.edu/about> (aged 8 to 16 years) or <https://www.scratchjr.org/> (ages 5 to 7 years)

Learning for Children of All Ages:

Crest Awards [British Science Association] is a website dedicated to student-led project work in the STEM subjects (science, technology, engineering and maths). Children aged 5 to 19 years earn awards for completing challenges. Visit: <https://www.crestawards.org/>

FarmFood 360, a Canadian website that offers 11 Virtual Tours of farms from minks, pigs, and cows, to apples and eggs. Visit: <https://www.farmfood360.ca/>

Highlights Kids is a free online tool through YouTube with games, activities, jokes, podcasts and more <https://www.highlightskids.com/activities>.

National Film Board of Canada, an amazing library of films and documentaries to discover. Visit: www.nfb.ca

National Geographic provides a wide range of videos and games for children to learn about geography and animals <https://kids.nationalgeographic.com/>

Scholastic offers learning journeys for grade levels ranging from pre-kindergarten to Grade 9. These activities explore a wide range of subjects, and culminate in reading quests that can be done alone, or with a parent.

Visit: <https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/support/learnathome.html>

TED ED has created high-quality interactive video-based lessons and presentations for children <https://ed.ted.com/>

The Canadian Space Agency has inspiring resources and activities to stimulate students' interest in the sciences, mathematics and technology. <https://www.asc-csa.gc.ca/eng/resources-young/default.asp>